German Shepherd

The German Shepherd is one of the most versatile and well-recognized dog breeds in the world. German Shepherds were originally used as herders and to guard flocks against predators, both being jobs they are well suited for. Uses for the German Shepherds today are K9 police dogs, military, service dogs, and, of course, they are still awesome herding dogs!

Maltese

The Maltese is a popular toy dog breed with ancient origins. Dating back over 2 millennia to Greece, it is by far the oldest toy dog breed in existence. The original breed was almost lost between the 17th and 18th centuries. The Maltese, as we know it today, is thought to be the result of British dog breeders, but it is also known that the Maltese is a direct descendant of other toy breeds like the Bichon Frise and the Havanese.

Shih Tzu

The Shih Tzu originated in China centuries ago. Their name means "lion", so they are sometimes referred to as the "lion dog". They were developed by Imperial breeders in the palace who crossed the Lhasa Apso and Pekingese to create it. Because they were bred specifically for the royalty of Imperial China, they remained relatively unknown around the world until the 1930s. The AKC recognized the Shih Tzu as part of the Toy Group in 1969.

Sales Process Guide

*"Selling is not something you do to someone. It's something you do for someone." – Zig Ziglar*

The Call – From Inquiry to Emotional Connection

Step 1: Start with a Warm Welcome

- "Hi [Name], I'm so glad you reached out today!"

Greet them by name. Smile while talking – it's audible.

Let your tone show that you care about them, not just the sale.

Ziglar Principle:

People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care.

Step 2: Ask Heart-Centered Questions

- "What made you decide now is the right time for a puppy?"
- "What kind of personality are you hoping for?"
- "Do you have kids or other pets at home?"

Tony Robbins

Strategy:

Get them talking about their "why." Tap into their vision.

Step 3: Educate with Confidence, Not Pressure

Highlight your standards, health screenings, and temperament care.

Offer guidance, not ultimatums.

Grant Cardone Tactic:

*Be the expert.
Authority inspires trust
— not force.*

Step 4: Connect Emotion to Action

- "Sounds like you're looking for a loyal, family-friendly dog — I know just the one who'd be perfect for that."
- "Benny loves to lay by the fireplace and he's great with toddlers."

Pro Tip: Personalization

= emotional ownership before financial commitment.

Step 5: Create Ethical Urgency

- "I'll be honest — puppies like this one tend to find homes quickly, especially after 10 weeks."
- "We don't want anyone to miss the right match — would you like me to help you secure him today?"

Ziglar Reminder:

*Pressure breaks trust
— but urgency protects opportunity.*

At Greenfield Puppies, we don't just sell puppies — we connect families with lifelong companions. If every step is guided by care, honesty, and intention, you'll never have to "sell" again — you'll simply serve better than anyone else.

The Follow-Through – From Decision to Delivery

Step 6: Make the Commitment Step Easy

- "Here's how we make this easy. I'll send you a DocuSign agreement and a PayPal invoice. Once that's complete, the puppy is reserved for your family."
- Offer support: "If anything's unclear, I'll walk you through it right now."

Grant Cardone Clarity:

*Confused minds
don't buy.
Simplicity closes.*

Step 7: Confirm and Celebrate

- "This is going to be a special addition to your family."
- "You're giving this puppy a loving home — that's a beautiful thing."

Send a thank-you text/email with a photo of the puppy.

Tony Robbins Touch:

*Celebrate progress to lock in commitment
and satisfaction.*

Step 8: Pre-Delivery Connection & Expectations

- "You'll want to bring a crate or blanket with your scent on it — it helps them adjust."

Encourage questions or updates leading to pickup day.

Zig Ziglar
Integrity Rule:
*Under-promise,
over-deliver.*

Step 9: Post-Pickup Relationship

- "How's Benny settling in?"
- "Anything I can help with during this transition?"

Relationship > Transaction: *You're
building brand loyalty,
one home at a time.*

Step 10: Invite the Testimonial Naturally

- "We love hearing success stories — would you mind sharing a photo or a few words for our community?"

Share it online (with permission) — it becomes powerful social proof for future buyers.

Final Encouragement

"The foundation of every great sale is service, and service is born from sincerity." – Zig Ziglar
